1. Reason for acquisition

In accordance with the medium-term business plan it announced last year, the Company is working to expand its electronic materials business, one of its main business fields, and increase production capacity. To capitalize on future growth driven by demand expansion for the products related to coating, and strengthen its supply capabilities further, the Company has decided to construct a new factory.

The purpose of this acquisition is not only to provide a growth investment to expand its business, but also to strengthen its Business Continuity Plan (BCP) through the diversification of its production facilities. The Company aims to enhance its medium- and long-term corporate value and to meet its customer expectations through continuing a stable supply system even in the event of natural disasters or external risks.

2. Outline of assets to be acquired

- (1) Location: Gifu Prefecture
- (2) Completion date: September, 2028 (scheduled)
- (3) Investment amount: Approximately 10,000 million yen (estimated) including land, buildings, machines and equipment
- (4) Financial plan: Equity capital and borrowings

3. Details of the counterparty

The Company will disclose further details as soon as a formal agreement is concluded with the counterparty. There are no capital, personnel, or transactional relationships between the Company and the counterparty that require disclosure. Neither the counterparty nor its affiliates are parties related to the Company.

4. Future outlook

The impact of the construction of the new factory, which is scheduled in September 2028, on the consolidated financial results for the fiscal year ending March 2027 is expected to be minimal. However, if any matters requiring disclosure arise in the future, the Company will promptly make an announcement.
